ADMINISTRATION DIRECTORATE REVIEW: TRENDS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Evaluation

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The objective of this course is to update DDA careerists' awareness and understanding of current activities, problems and trends in the Administration Directorate and its components.

- A. Please indicate on this numerical scale how well in your estimation, the course has met its objective. (Number 1 is the lowest, number 7 is the highest.)

- B. Please describe how you see the program benefiting you.

I benefited by seeing and meeting the office heads most of all. Their manner as well as presentations gives one a "feel" for the office direction as well as the facts about the office and what it does.

- C. Given your present assignment, what segment of the program did you find least useful?

Since I work in ODP, I found this presentation not overly informative. The ADMAG session however, was the worst. I felt it misinformed and misled a number of people in the course. It should either be completely dropped (See Reverse Side) or approached differently by OTR.

- D. Did you feel the session on the Administration Directorate/ Management & Advisory Group (AD/MAG) was beneficial? Why?

No! An employee should first take their problems directly to their supervisor for resolution. They should only bypass their supervisor on items of major importance when their supervisor and then his supervisor fails to resolve it. ADMAG should be a last effort, final

- E. We welcome your suggestions for improving this course:
attempt at resolving a problem and it was not presented this way.

Drop ADMAG session.
